Write code for above questions:

1: Exporting an object from a module using exports Object.

2: Exporting nested objects and function from Module using exports Object.

3: Writing to the server using request-response statements as a callback in createServer() function.

4: Reading into a file asynchronously and writing code for handling error if file not found to read.

5: Reading a text file on the server using http and fs module.